

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Here at Oak Hill United Methodist Church—we believe everyone is a minister. We believe that all of us are called to ministry—to be the hands and feet of Christ in a world that desperately needs encouragement and help. We're all about doing for Jesus. Whether the work involves pots and pans, hammers and nails, paint and brushes, needle and thread, shovels and rakes—we are ready to put our gifts and graces to work honoring God by serving his people.

We find ourselves walking side by side with the homeless and the poor, those that need a friend and those who are eager to be a friend. We love to pour out God's love on our brothers and sisters in Christ whether they live in Oak Hill, in other areas of Austin, somewhere in Texas, in Haiti, or beyond—anywhere God's people could use a hand, a smile, a voice of hope.

The projects vary throughout the year but Matt always has opportunities to serve up his sleeve!
